This is not a juried show: pieces in any media may be entered, and you may enter as many items as you wish. (Just print out more entry blanks as you need them.)

All items entered must be Irish Water Spaniel themed or related in some way, and items must not be commercially mass produced.

Entry fee is $12.00 per item. There is no fee to exhibit items that will later be donated to the auctions.

There is no size limit to the entries, however, if your artwork is large, heavy, awkward, unusually small, or delicate, we ask that you help set the piece in place for display.

Exhibitor must provide any necessary support for display of the piece, such as a pedestal or easel.

All artwork will be dropped off immediately prior to and picked up at the end of the opening of the hospitality suite on Monday, April 14th

There is no insurance coverage for your artwork while at the IWSCA art show. While the IWSCA and the specialty committee will do everything in its power to keep your art safe and free from damage the IWSCA and the specialty committee is not responsible for the safety of the art or for any loss or damage incurred during the exhibit. If you feel additional coverage is needed, contact your insurance carrier.

The deadline for entries is April 1.

I hereby submit the entries listed above and agree to the conditions as set out in this entry form by the 2013 Specialty Committee.
